

Entrance to Victoria Park

Having fun in the playground

I just love to climb trees

TRAVEL SUMMARY

Destination: Haywards Heath

Duration: 2 days

Date: January 2009

Weather: damp

Travel: we travelled by train, it took about half an hour

Activities: I went to dinner at a restaurant, I went to Victoria Park on my bike and I went shopping. There is also a cinema and local school nearby.

Food: There are Indian, Chinese and Italian restaurants, bars and fast food restaurants. I like them all.

Location: Haywards Heath is in West Sussex.

Opinion of destination: I like the shops and entertainment but it is a bit like my hometown, Horsham.

Haywards Heath

In 1841 the first railway link between London and Haywards Heath was opened which brought new residents and business to the town.

It has a population of approximately 23,000. Horsham has over 47,000! Many of its residents commute each day to London, Brighton, Crawley, and Gatwick but, many people also work in the town .

Railway Station

Haywards Heath
South Road
Town Centre

