

Sean—Moscow 2009

What an amazing building— St Basils Church has given Sean a few ideas for renovating his pad!

Sean thinks if he sits here for long enough he'll be invited into the Kremlin for afternoon tea!

Outhouses (toilets) can be recognised in Moscow as most of them are painted in blue and can be seen around Metro stations. A visit to an outhouse for one person costs between 15-25 rubles. Outhouses are considered as unhygienic, therefore many Muscovites, both men and women, prefer to communicate with nature behind fences and between garages.

..Sean is not amused
